

Generation First Degree

Pico Rivera

A college degree in every home.

FREE for Pico Rivera Families ...

The Road to College Success for Hispanic Students

What families need to know to send their children to college.

Wednesday, March 13, 2013

6:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

El Rancho High School (in the new gym)
6501 Passons Blvd., Pico Rivera, CA 90660

Topics:

- What a College Degree Can Do for Your Child's Future
- The Facts About Hispanics and Higher Education
- How to Prepare for College
- How to Get Money Through Financial Aid and Scholarships
- What to Look For When Applying to Colleges
- Hispanic College Students Share Their Experiences
- And More!

Drawing for a chance to win
LAKERS TICKETS
& other prizes!

For more information please call (562) 801-5355 ext. 109

CHILDCARE WILL BE PROVIDED | SPANISH LANGUAGE INTERPRETERS WILL BE AVAILABLE

facebook.com/Generation1stDegreePicoRivera
twitter.com/G1D_PicoRivera

Generation 1st Degree Pico Rivera is an ambitious new program with one goal: to have at least one child in every Pico Rivera home earn a college degree.